

Josh Pastner
University of Memphis Head Coach

In Josh Pastner's first season as head coach at The University of Memphis he led the Tigers to a 24-10 record, and was named Conference USA Coach of the Year by both The Sporting News and collegeinsider.com. In his second season, Pastner guided the Tigers to the Conference USA Tournament Championship and into the 2nd round of the NCAA Tournament. Some of his accomplishments under his leadership at Memphis:

- Rallied Tiger Nation to attend two of the most memorable Memphis Madnesses in school history as a record overflow crowd of 18,500-plus packed FedExForum in back-to-back years to watch the Tigers tip off preseason drills
- Signed the nation's No. 1 recruiting class for 2010 before coaching his first collegiate game.
- Directed the Tigers to back-to-back 20 win seasons.
- Winners of the 2011 Conference USA Tournament Championship.
